

The Institute for Music and Neurologic Function (IMNF) at Schnurmacher Center for Rehabilitation and Nursing and The Esplanade Senior Residence Present

Come join us and learn about how the Institute for Music and Neurologic Function's groundbreaking and internationally recognized programs use music therapy to restore, maintain and improve the physical, emotional and neurological functioning of seniors!

How Combining Music and Science

Wed, April 13, 2011,
8:30 a.m.

8:00 a.m. Free breakfast
8:30 a.m. Program begins

Esplanade Senior Residence
Regency Room
95 South Broadway at Lyon Place
White Plains, NY

Parking in municipal lot, 1 block south at Lyon Place and Waller Avenue, or in the Westchester Pavilion Mall across South Broadway.

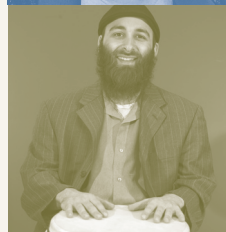

promotes

Healing & Wellness

Featuring a presentation by
Concetta M. Tomaino, DA, MT-BC, LCAT, Executive Director/Co-Founder of the IMNF

A pioneer in the field of music therapy, Dr. Concetta Tomaino is internationally known for her research in the clinical applications of music and neurologic rehabilitation. Dr. Tomaino has lectured on music therapy throughout the United States and in Argentina, Australia, South Africa, Italy, England, and Canada. A past president of the American Association for Music Therapy, Dr. Tomaino was honored at the United Nations with the Music Therapists for Peace Award of Accomplishment.

Followed by a participatory drumming experience led by
Marlon Sobol, MT-BC, LCAT

The manager of the IMNF at Schnurmacher in White Plains, Marlon Sobol runs the facility's music therapy programs. Board certified in Music Therapy and a Licensed Creative Arts Therapist, Sobol's lifelong passion for music, his training and an innate sense of empathy are essential elements in his ability to care for people with a broad range of afflictions. An accomplished percussionist in his own right, he plays congas, djembe, drumset, melodica, and vibraphone.

INSTITUTE FOR MUSIC AND NEUROLOGIC FUNCTION

The IMNF and Schnurmacher are members of the Beth Abraham Family of Health Services.